President's Message

Greetings Master Gardeners & Interns,

September is here, and —even though right now it feels like August just came late —the days are definitely getting shorter and Fall is coming. HCMG gets back to our regular routine of business meetings on the third Tuesday evening this month.

AIG is just a month away. Contact Theresa Mathieson if you still haven't volunteered and want to. Remember we are including a silent auction in AIG this year and there is no other auction in November. Proceeds from the Silent Auction will be used for our scholarship fund. We are asking for HCMG items--homemade/baked items, art-crafts, containers, etc. Please let Barb Zupan know what you will be donating. Registration for AIG is still open, both by mail and on-line.

The Nomination Committee for 2016 Officers (Nancy Barnett, Bruce Crum and Dale Olson) has been at work. The election will be at the October meeting this year. If you are interested in running for MG Board office/officer, please contact a Nomination Committee person or strongly consider serving when they contact you. If you willing to chair a committee or project for 2016 please contact the 2015 Board. The 2016 Board will need that information in November to begin their planning.

Martha Rardin and the Christmas Event planning committee should have arrangements finalized sometime this month.

The November meeting will be a standard business meeting with a presentation, not a fund raising auction. Angie Tilton has agreed to do the presentation.

Grow Interns, Grow Master Gardeners!

Rosie Lenihan

Adventures in Gardening Update

October 3, 2015

Registration and silent auction begin at 8:00 A.M.

Programs from 9:00 A.M. to 3:30 P. M.

Frederick Rice will be the feature speaker. His two presentations will be “Structure and Structures” and “Vines and Climbers”.

Broch Martindale will present “Container Gardening”. Attendees will have the option of staying for a Fall Container workshop where they can create a container to take home.

In addition there will be four short presentations on Gardening in Unconventional Places. Speakers include: David King, ISDA Program Manager—Local Foods; Elizabeth Garver, Indiana School for the Blind and Visually Impaired; Dan McCord, Hamilton County Urban Conservation Association; and a representative of the Boiler Green Initiative for Rooftop Gardens.

This year, Adventures in Gardening (October 3rd) will include a silent auction as a fundraiser for our scholarship fund. Let's give our attendees some awesome items to bid on. (Don't forget, we are attendees too, so we get to bid.) We have such a diverse membership with so many talents – artists, bakers, woodworkers, bee-keepers to mention a few. Just imagine all the items we will have on the auction block! The silent auction committee will also be assembling baskets of smaller donated items, so if you have new or very gently used small items (gloves, tools, seeds, bulbs, books, etc), please consider donating them. Contact Silent Auction Chair, Barb Zupan at bsz@indy.rr.com and let her know what you will be donating. Except for perishables Barb needs the donations by September 15th in order to prepare bid sheets and assemble baskets.

Register and pay online, or download mail-able registration forms at <http://www.hendricksgardeners.com/aig2015flyerweb.html> .
